

CLADDING AND FALSE CEILINGS

ALUMINIUM STRIPS FALSE CEILING

This false ceiling is formed by enamel aluminum strips, placed by a pressure into sustentation profiles formed by steel threaded rods into the slab.

These threaded rods have a piece of steel veneer, they make the level function of the structure through a pressure mechanism and they hold down the support profile.